§ 111.01 DEFINITIONS.

For the purpose of this chapter the following definitions shall apply unless the context clearly indicates or requires a different meaning.

GARAGE SALE. A sale of miscellaneous property on premises which are located in a residential area.

RESIDENTIAL AREA. Areas within the town, which are zoned as suburban residence, garden apartment, single-family residence, and single-two and multi-family residences by the master plan of the town.

§ 111.02 LICENSE REQUIRED.

It shall be unlawful for any person to hold, have, or engage in the business of a garage sale in a residential area without first having secured a license therefor.
Penalty, see § 10.99

§ 111.03 APPLICATION; FEES.

(A) Any person desiring to hold, have, or engage in the business of a garage sale shall make an application in writing to the Clerk-Treasurer for a license so to do, which application shall be filed at least seven days before such applicant shall be authorized to begin business. The application shall state the name and residence of the applicant, and the place where the business is to be conducted.

(B) Upon the filing of an application, a license shall be issued by the Clerk-Treasurer to the applicant to conduct business at the location stated in the application, and the applicant may begin business not less than seven days after the date of filing the application, upon the payment of a $5 license fee. All license fees must be paid in advance and if any licensee desires to continue in business after the expiration of the license, a new license must be secured in the same manner and upon the same terms as the original license.

Penalty, see § 10.99

§ 111.04 ISSUANCE OF LICENSE; RIGHTS AND LIMITATIONS.

(A) Each license shall entitle the holder thereof to conduct a three-day sale.

(B) No license shall be issued to any one licensee or any one address more than seven times within any calendar year.

§ 111.05 POSTING OF LICENSE.

Any license issued under this chapter shall be posted by the licensee at the location of the sale so that the license shall be visible from any abutting public street.

Penalty, see § 10.99

§ 111.06 EXEMPTED PERSONS AND ORGANIZATIONS.

(A) This chapter shall not apply to churches or other organizations which are exempt from the state property tax.

(B) Any person exempted by the laws of this state from the payment of the license fees set forth in this chapter shall, before beginning such business present to the Clerk-Treasurer his credentials, showing that he is entitled to an exemption. He shall then receive a certificate from the Clerk-Treasurer authorizing him to hold, have, and engage in the business of garage sales in accordance with this chapter.
